THE LITURGICAL YEAR 2021-2022

THE SEASON OF ADVENT

Sunday readings from Cycle C (Luke) Divine Office Vol 1 - Liturgia Horarum Vol 1

Advent has a twofold character: especially during the first part it is a season of joyful expectation of the Lord's second coming at the end of time; but also, and especially during the last eight days of the season, a period of preparing to celebrate Christmas when the first coming of the Son of God is recalled. Advent is thus a period for devout and joyful expectation

During Advent

1. Masses for Various Needs and Votive Masses may be celebrated only when called for by genuine pastoral need. Daily Masses for the Dead are not allowed.
2. Masses of the memorials of saints may be celebrated only on those days assigned to them in the Martyrology
3. The playing of the organ and other musical instruments and the decoration of the altar with flowers should be done in moderation, as is consonant with the character of the season, without anticipating the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord
4. The same moderation should be observed in the celebration of Matrimony, and the couple are to be advised of the special character of the liturgical season.

ORDINARY TIME OF THE YEAR

Weekday readings from Year 2 - Liturgia Horarum Vol 3
Week 1 of the Psalter

No particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated during Ordinary Time; but rather the mystery of Christ in its fullness is recalled, and especially on Sundays

During Ordinary Time

1. On weekdays the priest may choose Mass from one of the 34 Sundays in Ordinary Time or from the Prayers for Any Necessity. Or the Mass may be that of any saint inscribed in the Martyrology on that day. Or one of the Masses for Any Necessity or Votive Masses may be chosen. Or any of the Masses for the Dead, mindful that the Daily Mass for the Dead may be celebrated only if it is indeed being applied for the departed.

2. In Masses celebrated with the people the priest should be concerned for their spiritual good, and neither frequently nor without good cause omit the readings assigned to the day in the Weekday Lectionary, so that the faithful may be better nourished from the table of God's Word

3. For the same reason Masses for the Dead should not be celebrated too often since every Mass is offered for the living and the dead, and mention is made of the departed in every Eucharistic Prayer.

4. The colour of vestments at Votive Masses may be proper, or of the day, or of the season.

THE SEASON OF LENT

"The annual Lenten Season is the fitting time to climb the holy mountain of Easter. The Lenten Season has a double character, namely to prepare both catechumens and faithful to celebrate the Paschal Mystery. The catechumens, both with the Rite of Election and Scrutinies, and by catechesis, are prepared for the celebration of the sacraments of Christian Initiation; the faithful, ever more attentive to the word of God and prayer, prepare themselves by penance for the renewal of their baptismal promises."

During Lent

1. All memorials of the saints which occur during Lent are regarded as optional and may be observed only as commemorations (see page 3).
2. Masses for Various Needs are permitted only when there is a genuine pastoral need. Votive Masses and Daily Masses for the Dead are not permitted.
3. In every part of the Mass or the Office where Alleluia occurs it is omitted.
4. The organ and other musical instruments are permitted only to support the singing, otherwise their use is not permitted. Flowers are not used in the decoration of the church. An exception is made for Laetare Sunday and for solemnities and feasts.
5. In the celebration of Marriage the couple are to be advised of the need to take account of the penitential character of this liturgical season.

2 Wed Purple ASH WEDNESDAY

Mass: of the day. Pf of Lent 4

At Masses during which the Ashes are blessed the Penitential Rite is omitted. The blessing takes place after the Gospel and Homily.

The Rite of Blessing may take place outside of Mass, in which case it is preceded by the Liturgy of the Word from today's Mass, and the rite concludes with the General Intercessions.

HOLY WEEK

During Holy Week the Church celebrates the mysteries of salvation accomplished by Christ in the last days of his earthly life, beginning with his Messianic Entry into Jerusalem. The days of Holy Week have precedence over all other celebrations. Baptism and Confirmation should not be celebrated on these days since these have their natural place in the Easter Vigil

The rites of Holy Week may be celebrated in all churches and oratories. However, they may be celebrated in non-parochial churches and oratories only if they can be carried out with dignity, with sufficient servers, with facilities for at least some parts to be sung, and with a reasonable number of the faithful attending - otherwise they may not be celebrated.

THE EASTER TRIDUUM

The Lenten Season lasts until Holy Thursday. The Easter Triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, is continued through Good Friday, with the celebration of the Passion of the Lord, and Holy Saturday, reaches its summit in the Easter Vigil, and concludes with Vespers of Easter Sunday. Christ accomplished the work of Redemption and the perfect Glorification of God principally through his Paschal Mystery, in which dying he destroyed our death and rising he restored our life. Hence the sacred Easter Triduum shines forth as the culmination of the whole liturgical year.

On Holy Thursday evening, at the beginning of the Easter Triduum, the Church recalls the Last Supper, in which the Lord Jesus offered to the Father his Body and Blood under the form of bread and wine, gave them to the apostles as spiritual food, and commanded them and their successors in the priesthood to perpetuate this offering.

1. Only the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper is permitted today. Mass may not be celebrated without a congregation, nor may funeral Masses be celebrated.

2. The tabernacle should be empty and sufficient hosts consecrated for this Mass and tomorrow's Liturgy. During the Gloria the bells of the church are rung then remain silent until the Gloria at the Easter Vigil.

3. It is fitting that the Washing of Feet take place after the Gospel and Homily.

4. The faithful are encouraged to watch before the Blessed Sacrament at the Place of Repose for a suitable period. From Midnight adoration may be made but without external solemnity.

5. After Mass the altar is stripped without ceremony, holy water stoups are emptied and covered, and any uncovered crucifixes are veiled or removed.

15 Fri Red GOOD FRIDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

On this day the Church meditates on the Passion of her Lord and Spouse, venerates the Cross, commemorates her origin from the side of Christ on the Cross, and intercedes for the salvation of the whole world.

Office: of the day. It is recommended that on this day OR and Lds be celebrated in church with the participation of the people. ORp,Lp,Hp

Celebration of the Passion of the Lord: as in the Missal

1. The Liturgy should take place at 3.00 p.m.; for pastoral reasons it may begin later. The altar is bare, no cross, candles or cloth. The Place of Repose should be undecorated save two candles and a veil on the tabernacle.

2. For the reading of the Passion the same rules apply as on Palm Sunday.

3. Holy Communion is received only during the Liturgy; but it may be taken at any time of day to the sick who are unable to attend.

4. After Communion the Blessed Sacrament is removed to a place outside the church. The altar is stripped privately after the Liturgy, leaving only the cross and candles used in the Liturgy. An appropriate place (e.g. the Place of Repose) may be prepared within the church, and the Lord's Cross placed there so that the faithful may venerate and kiss it and spend some time in meditation.

16 Sat Purple HOLY SATURDAY

Today the Church is, as it were, at the Lord's tomb, meditating on his passion and death, and on his descent to the dead, and awaiting his resurrection with prayer and fasting. Mass is not celebrated. Before the Easter Vigil Holy Communion may be given only as Viaticum. No sacraments are celebrated save, where necessary, Penance and Anointing of the Sick.

Office: of the day. It is recommended that on this day OR and Lds be celebrated in church with the participation of the people.

THE SEASON OF EASTER

The celebration of Easter begins at the Easter Vigil and is prolonged throughout the Easter Season. The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday are celebrated as one feast, the "Great Sunday".

White + EASTER SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S RESURRECTION

Solemnity of solemnities

16 Sat AT THE EASTER VIGIL

By ancient tradition this night is "one of vigil for the Lord", to commemorate the resurrection: the "Mother of all holy vigils" when the Church waits for the Resurrection and celebrates it with the sacraments of Christian Initiation. The full meaning of this Vigil is a waiting for the coming of the Lord.

1. The celebration of the Vigil takes place during the night. It begins after nightfall and ends before daybreak on Sunday. The practice of celebrating the Easter Vigil at the time when the Sunday Vigil Masses are usually celebrated is to be censured.

2. The Vigil is obligatory in churches with a baptismal font. It may be celebrated in churches and oratories which had no celebrations on Holy Thursday or Good Friday; and may be omitted in those which did. It is forbidden to celebrate Mass without the Vigil ceremonies.

3. If necessary the Easter Proclamation may be sung by a cantor who is not a deacon, in which case the cantor is not blessed by the priest and omits the relevant parts of the text. The shorter form of the Proclamation may always be used.

4. At least three readings from the O.T. must be read, and in more urgent cases at least two. The reading from Exodus is never to be omitted.

MASS ON EASTER DAY

On Easter Day Mass is to be celebrated with great solemnity.

The Renewal of Baptismal Promises may take the place of the Creed. If not, the Penitential Rite should take the form of sprinkling with water blessed at the Vigil, during which a song of baptismal character is sung.

The stoups at the entrance to the church are filled with the same water.

The Easter Candle is placed near the altar or ambo and remains there until Pentecost Sunday inclusive. It is to be lit at Mass, Lauds and Vespers during the whole of Eastertide.

ORDINARY TIME OF THE YEAR

Weekday readings from Year 2 - Liturgia Horarum Vol 3
Week 10 of the Psalter

No particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated during Ordinary Time; but rather the mystery of Christ in its fullness is recalled, and especially on Sundays

During Ordinary Time

1. On weekdays the priest may choose Mass from one of the 34 Sundays in Ordinary Time or from the Prayers for Any Necessity. Or the Mass may be that of any saint inscribed in the Martyrology on that day. Or one of the Masses for Any Necessity or Votive Masses may be chosen. Or any of the Masses for the Dead, mindful that the Daily Mass for the Dead may be celebrated only if it is indeed being applied for the departed.

2. In Masses celebrated with the people the priest should be concerned for their spiritual good, and neither frequently nor without good cause omit the readings assigned to the day in the Weekday Lectionary, so that the faithful may be better nourished from the table of God's Word

3. For the same reason Masses for the Dead should not be celebrated too often since every Mass is offered for the living and the dead, and mention is made of the departed in every Eucharistic Prayer.

4. The colour of vestments at Votive Masses may be proper, or of the day, or of the season.
